Destiny Hubby

Destiny Hubby is a witty and vibrant individual who is passionate about empowering and elevating those around her. Destiny's life's mantra is "Each one, must teach one." She believes the power of knowledge and charisma is something that will provide you with access to opportunities that may not have been available in your native environment. Destiny is passionate about all things regarding racial diversity and inclusion, a dog enthusiast, and above all a lover of God.

Destiny is a graduate of Columbia Southern University where she obtained a master's degree in business administration with a concentration in project management. She also holds a bachelor's degree in communication/journalism from Clayton State University. In addition, Destiny is a licensed real estate salesperson with the state of Georgia with a focus on commercial real estate, as well as a current candidate for CPM designation in the commercial property management industry.

Destiny has had the privilege of working in the real estate industry for both residential and commercial for over 15 years, where she obtained skills of residential and healthcare property management, healthcare real estate transactions, as well as non-profit real estate transactions.

TOMORROW'S PROMISE
FOUNDATION

Destiny is also proud of her work with the Atlanta Commercial Board of Realtors, where she is a graduate of the commercial board diversity program. This role provided her with an opportunity to train under the mentorship of industry leaders, where she learned the power of networking, building relationships, financial literacy of real estate, development projects, and curating high value deals.

Apart from professional pursuits, Destiny also enjoys music festivals, a good gym session, audio books, and sports. These activities allow her to unwind, explore my creativity, and maintain a healthy work-life balance.
