Melissa Collins

Melissa is a generous and enthusiastic individual who is passionate about education, growth and enjoys being able to provide service to others in her community. Melissa holds a bachelor's degree in Integrative Studies from Clayton State University, with concentrations in natural and social sciences. During her time there, Melissa gained invaluable knowledge, and skills that have allowed her to excel in multiple roles. She began her career in customer service over 16 years ago and has carried the principles learned along the way into her current profession.

Melissa's professional talents have led her into the role of an Operational Business Analyst for DHL Supply Chain, where she provides support to the global logistics operation. This experience has allowed her to develop a deep understanding of business administration and hone her skills in finance analytics. Melissa also values her recent accomplishments as an entrepreneur in establishing TCS Specialty Vending Group, LLC where she has been fortunate to experience professional and personal development as C.E.O. and operator. This role has provided her with an opportunity to leverage knowledge and business skills along with her passion for service in my community, into a business with immense opportunity for growth.
